

Code of Conduct

Your acceptance onto Tedy's Team ("team") is at will and can be revoked at any time, without cause.

You are expected to follow the Tedy's Team Code of Conduct ("Code of Conduct") at all times during your participation on the team, including during any travel and on the race weekend.

There are no exceptions to this policy.

Code of Conduct:

1. Always represent Tedy's Team in a positive manner.
2. Always be respectful to those around you and polite to those you meet while representing Tedy's Team.
3. No drugs, illegal or legal, unless prescribed to you or available over-the-counter at a pharmacy, are allowed on you, or in any room, while you are travelling with the team or otherwise participating in any team activity. This rule applies to taking, smoking, injecting (etc.) any of these medications/drugs.
4. No public drunkenness is permitted at any time.
5. You must follow all laws in the city and state in which the team participates in any activity or event or to which the team travels, at all times.
6. When travelling with the team, you must notify the Tedy's Team representative via text of your whereabouts. If not with the team that day/evening, when you are back in your hotel room for the night, notify the Tedy's Team representative with a text.
7. No illegal activity, of any kind, is to be conducted at any time while on any trip with Tedy's Team or otherwise representing Tedy's Team, at home or away.
8. When traveling with Tedy's Team, always be alert and aware of your surroundings. Never go out alone. Always two people or more should be together at a time. If you are going to see family or friends while traveling, and this will be alone, you must report to the Tedy's Team representative, in advance, for your protection.

Should one or any of these rules not be followed, you can and will be banned from future local team events and travel team events with Tedy's Team.

Should you have any questions about the Code of Conduct, please see the Tedy's Team representative.

By signing below, you are acknowledging that you have read the Code of Conduct and understand that you are responsible for your actions while participating in any local events or travel with Tedy's Team.
