

Santa's Workshop

DEAREST REMI,

Merry Christmas!

Your parents have written me to say that you've been good this year. My elves have reported the same thing! You know what that means, right? Aside from my happiness and pride in seeing you grow up to be a good person, you'll be happy to know that I've loaded up your present in my sleigh, all ready to be delivered.

I hope you keep on being your parents' pride and joy, plus an inspiration to other kids.

YOUR FRIEND,

Santa Claus

P.S. I loved last year's cookies.

Any chance you have more of those?
