

How-To Do Virtual Climb/Hike

How Does A Virtual Climb/Hike Fundraiser Work?

If you and your circles love to hike or climb, this might be the fundraiser for you.

Charge an entry fee:

The simplest way to organize a virtual climb/hike fundraiser is to charge an entry fee. So, if it costs you $10 per participant, you might charge $30-$40, so you can put on a great event and raise money towards your minimum.

What Might Your Costs Be?

A registration platform. If you do not use your fundraising webpage. - The platform may be free but the charge fees exist, so keep that in mind when figuring out what to charge per participant. Finisher Medals - People like event bling. And there are super inexpensive options out there.

How can I do this?

- Encourage people to get out to their local parks and climb or hike.
- Create a climb/hike medal so people have something to work for.
- Pick a date that has significant meaning and make that the day or the virtual climb/hike.
- Promote this amongst your circles and online on forums you might frequent as an avid hiker or climber.
